Dear Mr Balasundaram Iyer

DIARY No 2212
Received 1911 10 12
Five hundred and fourteen
Edition
508

I have already been in receipt of [illegible] copies of the Oriental Library publications and have used them for research work with deep gratitude to Government for having shown me this concession

For some years past, however, I have received no publications. Some of the recent publications, such as Nithavathi are very important historically and will be of considerable help to me in my researches into literary and antiquarian fields

I shall feel highly thankful if

Government be pleased to entertain this highly favored concession bona and issue orders for the supply of the publications as heretofore

Yours sincerely

R Fawcett Chas
